

Seeing Behind

Escape from past experiences.
new experiences.
Catch the unpredictable.

Summer break, I was 14 years old. I worked for an advertising sign design company. At first, I was cleaning the signs. After a short while, I was a young artist, drawing and painting the ads.

My dress code for ultimate productivity? Shorts and t-shirts... while listening to One More Cup of Coffee by Bob Dylan.

I wish I could have thought of the Rolling Stones logo myself!

I admire Banksy and Cildo Meirelles as well as the late Giulio Carlo Argan and value my peers for their courage.

Humour is the high point of my career. I'd like my designs to go down in history by breaking patterns to challenge our brains... Point blank.

After all, my mantra is...
DESTRUCTION to CHANGE!

And my all-time favorite place in the world? Cyprus, my country.

If I were to host a fantasy dinner, my guests of choice would be Mahatma Gandhi and Cildo Meireles. I'd serve a Cyprus traditional barbecue called Kebap.
