

I lead JPRA Architects/JPRA Design's Interiors Studio, visioning, directing and mentoring the firm's designers, and facilitating client relationships.

Option 1: I work in silence.

Option 2: Coffee House on Siriusm XF.

Option 3: a good JRE podcast.

I have been fortunate to travel to many amazing locations around the world. Still, I always find myself looking forward to experiencing a new part of it.

Daydreams these days...

The design qualities I value most in my peers are honesty, pragmatism and creativity. In that order.

I have, in that sense, much appreciation for the work of Frank Gehry.

I most definitely work in PJs and dare to ask... who wears a 3-piece suit to the home office these days? Zoom meetings at 10, 11, 2 and 4!

74

Too

Buildings

Oh... and Relationships

Building