

AND THE WINNERS ARE ...

Montreal, October 20th, 2021

Unveiling of Grand Winners in Interior Design, Product, Communication & Branding and look back on our second Awards Gala hosted in Montréal.

After thirteen editions known and recognized as prestigious competitions celebrating the excellence of a creative industry, the GRANDS PRIX DU DESIGN has exploded on the world stage, added a very first international Jury and introduced new disciplines and categories to reflect the effervescence and multidisciplinary of creativity in the building industry.

On October 20th, at the Plaza - Centre-ville in Montreal, for the second unveiling of the Grand Prize Winners of the GRANDS PRIX DU DESIGN 2021, guests gathered in person for an evening of celebration of a strong and vibrant industry.

Jury Members

Recruited from all over the world and praised for their talents and experience in the areas evaluated, the elite personalities appointed to the very first International Jury of the competition reinforced the seal of excellence that a GRAND PRIX stands for.

Inaugural International Legion

Talents from more than 30 countries joined candidates from Québec in presenting 1,113 creative projects of all sorts.

In looking through this year's amazing participation of candidacies, we realized with joy that the international community of professionals, real estate developers, contractors and manufacturers is ever-so fraternal! This 2021 cohort of winning projects has proven to be particularly avant-garde and considerate of a sustainable future.

Make way for a cornucopia of stunning winning projects in Interior Design, Product, Communication & Branding.
